

In response to the physical distancing requirements associated with COVID-19, Lucan Biddulph Council Meetings are being held virtually (online) at this time. We broadcast virtual meetings on the municipality's YouTube channel. Please see below for information on participating in virtual council or planning meetings. In response to the physical distancing requirements associated with COVID-19, Lucan Biddulph Council Meetings are being held virtually (on-line) at this time. We broadcast electronic meetings on the municipality's YouTube channel.

Delegations at Virtual Meetings

If you wish to be a delegate at a virtual Council meeting, contact the Municipal Clerk for details. The general rules associated with being a delegate can be found above. You will receive additional information about the requirements to be a "virtual" delegate.

Participating in Virtual Planning Meetings

Although meetings to discuss planning matters are being held online at this time, public input continues to be welcomed.

To participate in an electronic planning meeting.

Learn more about proposed developments, which may be found under Public Notices. If you wish to speak about a proposed development before Council:

To participate in the virtual meeting via phone or by video online using Zoom, contact planning staff (via email), before 4:30 p.m. on the Friday prior to the meeting.

Provide your name, phone number and agenda item number(s) you wish to speak to.

Municipal staff will provide details to join the meeting.

If you wish to provide written comments about a proposed development:

To provide a written submission prior to the public meeting for Council's consideration, send your comments to planning staff (via email) or by mail to the municipal office.

Comments must be received by 4:30 p.m. on the Friday prior to the meeting.

If you wish to watch the meeting, you may do so on the municipality's YouTube channel.